

Women WORKFORCE EMPOWERMENT PROGRAM

Inspiring Generational Breakthroughs

In partnership with The Frederick A. DeLuca Foundation, OIC of South Florida is delighted to provide vocational skills training and a variety of support services to 50 economically disadvantaged women within Broward County. The Women Workforce Empowerment Program is designed to meet the needs of career-inspired, unemployed or underemployed women who want to further their careers and break the chains of generational poverty.

Program Highlights Include:

- Vocational/Employment Skills Building Training
- Job Placement Assistance
- Case Management & Support Services
- Support Network & Guest Speakers
- Before and After School Child Care (Broward County)
- 20+ Industry-Recognized Certifications Offerings:
  - Culinary/Food Service
  - Customer Service
  - Supply Chain Operations
  - General Construction & Safety
  - Information Technology

ELIGIBILITY Requirements:

- Broward County residents 17 years or older
- Currently unemployed or underemployed
- GED or High School Diploma (not required to start)
- At risk women due to (desired):
  - Homeless
  - Domestic Violence
  - Family Violence
  - Behavioral Health

Enroll
TODAY!

OIC
OF SOUTH FLORIDA

The
Frederick A. DeLuca
Foundation